

Challenging Reads for Year 6

Itch by Simon Mayo

Can Itch discover the secret of the newest element in his collection and why it has put him in so much danger?

Northern Lights by Phillip Pullman

Lyra must travel North into a parallel world to battle armoured bears and witch-queens to save her friend.

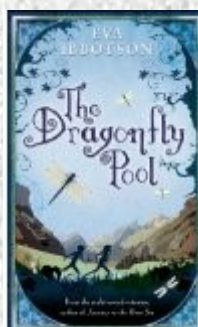

At the Sign of the Sugared Plum by Mary Hooper

Set in London in 1665 where the Plague is raging, can Hannah and her family survive?

The Secret Garden by Frances Hodgson Burnett

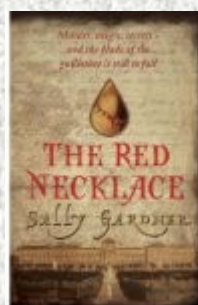

A classic novel about a mysterious house which has a walled garden with no door; however, Mary an orphan who is sent to live there finds the key...

The Dragonfly Pool by Eva Ibbotson

by Eva Ibbotson

When Tally is sent away to boarding school because of the War she is not happy but then she realises what a magical place it is.

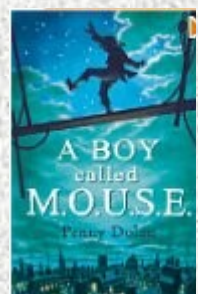

The Red Necklace by Sally Gardner

Set in Paris, 1789 this book is about murder, magic, secrets – and the blade of the guillotine is still to fall...

The History Keepers: The Storm Begins by Damian Dibben

The History Keepers have to travel back in time to save history from the evil Prince Zeldt who is set on trying to change the past.

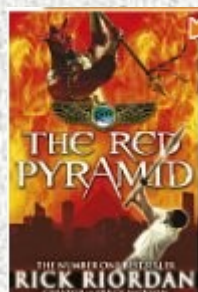

A Boy called M.O.U.S.E by Penny Dolan

A historical novel about a boy from a privileged background who tries to escape the clutches of his evil Uncle via a farm, a boarding school and the theatres of London

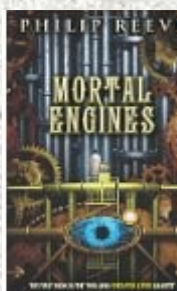

Remembrance by Theresa Breslin

This is the story of three young people whose lives are changed irrevocably by the First World War.

The Red Pyramid by Rick Riordan

CARTER AND SADIE KANE'S dad is a brilliant Egyptologist with a secret plan that goes horribly wrong. To save their dad, they embark on a terrifying quest around the world fighting the ancient Gods of Egypt.

Mortal Engines by Phillip Reeve

A great fantasy novel set in a future world where cities battle with each other to survive.

Artemis Fowl by Eoin Colfer

Artemis Fowl is the most ingenious criminal mastermind in history, and with his trusty sidekicks Butler and Juliet he hatches a cunning plot to divest the fairies of their pot of gold.

The Star of Kazan by Eva Ibbotson

Annika's early life is a mystery because as a new-born baby she was found abandoned in a church. She has always dreamt of finding