

Year 7 Formal Examinations

8th May 2014

Dear Parent

I would just like to remind you that the Year 7 formal examinations commence on Monday 2nd June. A copy of the timetable is printed overleaf for your information and can also be found on the school website.

As you may already be aware, assessment of GCSE performance is becoming more and more focused on terminal examinations. With this in mind, we have planned these more formal Year 7 examinations so that the pupils start early to gain experience of revision techniques and examination protocol. We therefore expect all pupils to prepare for their examinations in a positive and productive manner and use their normal Home Learning time to make sure that they have used the revision material effectively.

Your child should now be aware of what they need to revise for each subject and revision materials are available on Moodle which can be found on the school website. It is hoped that pupils have a suitable place at home in which to undertake their examination preparation and that they have been allocating some time for revision purposes.

The marks and subsequent levels gained from each examination will represent only a single assessment for the year and pupils will receive all their examination outcomes at the same time on Wednesday June 25th when a results sheet will be given to them to bring home. This will be followed up by the issue of a full report on Friday 4th July which will show current attitude grades and final levels for the year. This will be posted on the SIMS Learning Gateway.

Should you have any concerns please contact subject teachers directly at the school via:
