Test Valley SCHOOL

Elen Caldecott Author Visit

17th June 2015

Dear Parent,

On Friday 3rd July, Elen Caldecott will be visiting Test Valley School to talk to our Year 7 pupils. Elen is a successful author and her first novel 'How Kirsty Jenkins Stole the Elephant', was shortlisted for the Waterstones Children's Book Prize.

The visit has been arranged in co-operation with P&G Wells Bookshops, Winchester. There will be an opportunity for pupils to purchase their own copies of Elen's books on the day, including copies of 'Crowns and Codebreakers' her latest novel, all of which can be pre-ordered for the discounted price of £5.00 each using the slip below.

During Elen's visit to Test Valley she will talk to the pupils about her new book, 'Crowns and Codebreakers' and her inspirations for writing. After she has spoken with the pupils there will be an opportunity for the pupils to meet her and if they have purchased a copy of one of her books to have this signed.

Previous authors' visit have been very enjoyable and educational for pupils as they have learned where writers gain their inspiration for their books and how they structure their writing. Recent visitors have included Ali Sparkes and Teri Terry and we look forward to Elen Caldecott's visit continuing their valuable experience.

Should you have any queries about the above arrangements do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind Regards

Kerry Natt (Mrs)
Librarian
