

Training to Teach

9th November 2016

Dear Parent

Are you, or do you know someone who is interested in training to become a secondary school teacher?

South Wilts is working in partnership with several other local schools, including Test Valley and with Southampton University in a consortium called SUPA (Southampton University Partnership Alliance) Salisbury. Together we provide school-led teacher training in Salisbury, via a School Direct model. This training route retains the academic rigour of University led training, and successful completion will result in a PCGE with QTS. Our goal is to make Salisbury a centre of excellence in the delivery of teacher training. Further general details about teacher training routes can be found at www.education.gov.uk/get-into-teaching

SUPA Salisbury currently has vacancies to start training from September 2017 and we would be very interested to hear from you if you are thinking of becoming a teacher, or know someone who is. We're looking for people who have (or will have) a degree, have a passion for teaching and want to inspire young people to fulfil their potential. More information about SUPA Teachers can be found on our website www.swgs.wilts.sch.uk/supasalisbury

On Thursday 17th November between 5pm and 7pm, we are hosting a 'Train to Teach' Event at South Wilts, where representatives from our partnership will be present to tell you about the training route and to answer any questions you might have. There will be a formal presentation repeated during this time at 5.15pm and 6.15pm with time between to ask questions and gain more information about this exciting opportunity.

If you are not able to come to the event, or would like any further information, please contact Dr Smith at school. You can also contact us via Twitter — @supateacherIT

We look forward to seeing you

Yours sincerely

On behalf of SUPA Salisbury — Amanda Smith
Deputy Headteacher
